

Answers

1. A and B are both fine. You can lay script out as you like!
2. There are 5 types of variables – single, multi, integer, real numbers and character
3. If you use di you will pick up an integer / whole number. If you choose dw, you can pick numbers with decimal places
4. Dm $q99=$12-16,
5. Q77 will appear down the left hand side of your table, Q78 will appear across the top